

STRATEGIC RISK REVIEW FOR NOT-FOR-PROFIT ORGANISATIONS

Helping not-for-profits find and manage their strategic risks

EXPLORATION - DISCOVERY - SOLUTIONS

We know that identifying risks is a key element of effective risk management, but sometimes it can be difficult to be objective about the strategic risks you face when you are working inside your organisation every day.

Bringing in an independent and fresh set of eyes, with risk management expertise, helps you find any strategic risks you might have missed, as well as providing you with objective recommendations of how to potentially manage those risks.

And organisations that have felt they are managing their strategic risks reasonably well have also benefitted from the reassurance and the objective opinion that comes with this kind of independent review.
